133	4411 Airport Boulevard Austin, Travis County 30.30134, -97.71344	DOMESTIC/Multiple Dwelling	1963	No Style	Resource 133 is the Urban Villas apartment complex, which includes roughly ten nearly identical multiple-unit apartment buildings (133A) and a utility/laundry building (133B). The buildings are arranged in an irregular pattern which mirrors the shape of the parcel. Parking lots are set along the exterior of the property as well as in the spaces between buildings. A historic-age pool is set at the center of the property. Landscape features include mature trees and shrubbery. Resource 133 does not possess historical or architectural significance within the historic contexts necessary for individual listing in the NRHP under Criteria A, B, or C.	Some minor alterations have been made to individual buildings, but as a whole the complex retains its overall character. For this reason, Resource 133 retains all aspects of integrity.	Not eligible.
133A	4411 Airport Boulevard Austin, Travis County 30.30134, -97.71344	DOMESTIC/Multiple Dwelling	1963	No Style	Resource 133A represents a collection of nearly identical apartment buildings, connected by common walkways and roofs. They are two-story, rectangular-plan, flat-roof apartment buildings. Concrete slab foundations. Brick walls with second story faux-mansard clad in fiber cement siding. 9/6 and 3/3 metal sash windows. Some second-story windows have been replaced with doors to create small balconies with horizontal wood rails. Simple metal stairs and walkways used to access second floor. Resource 133A does not possess historical or architectural significance within the historic contexts necessary for individual listing in the NRHP under Criteria A, B, or C.	Alterations include the addition of balconies and replacement of siding on mansard sections. Despite minor alterations, Resource 133A retains all aspects of integrity.	Not eligible.
133B	4411 Airport Boulevard Austin, Travis County 30.30145, -97.71332	DOMESTIC/Secondary Structure	1963	No Style	Two-story, rectangular-plan, flat-roof utility building/laundry facility. Concrete slab foundation. Brick construction with second story faux-mansard clad in fiber cement siding. This building matches the dwelling units in style but is without windows. Door on elevation facing pool allows access to laundry room. Mailboxes for complex are affixed to northwest elevation. Resource 133B does not possess historical or architectural significance within the historic contexts necessary for individual listing in the NRHP under Criteria A, B, or C.	Alterations are limited to replacement siding on the mansard section of the second floor. Despite minor alterations, Resource 133B retains all aspects of integrity.	Not eligible.
134	4401 Parkwood Road Austin, Travis County 30.30062, -97.71237	DOMESTIC/Single Dwelling	1947	Minimal Traditional	One-story, rectangular-plan, cross-gable. Minimal Traditional residence. Brick construction with vinyl siding in gable ends, metal roof. Partial width, shed-roof porch with iron supports. 1/1 vinyl sash windows. Non-historic-age garage addition clad in vinyl siding. Other non-historic-age resources on property: plywood shed and treeshouse. Privacy fence and heavy vegetation surrounding property obscure view and interfere with photography. Resource 134 does not possess historical or architectural significance within the historic contexts necessary for individual listing in the NRHP under Criteria A, B, or C.	Alterations include the addition of a non-historic-age garage and the replacement of siding, windows, and doors. Due to alterations, Resource 134 has lost integrity of materials, design, workmanship, and feeling, but retains integrity of location, setting, and association.	Not individually eligible but remains a historic property as a contributing resource to the NRHP-eligible Delwood II Historic District (Criteria A and C).
135	4333 Airport Boulevard Austin, Travis County 30.30048, -97.71220	DOMESTIC/Single Dwelling	1947	Minimal Traditional	One-story, rectangular-plan, cross-gable. Minimal Traditional residence. Asbestos and wood siding, asphalt shingles. Entry inset under cross-gable. Vinyl picture and 9/9 sash windows. Large addition at rear, age unknown. Shed-roof awning attached to addition. Large wooden privacy fence obscures view of building on all sides. Resource 135 does not possess historical or architectural significance within the historic contexts necessary for individual listing in the NRHP under Criteria A, B, or C.	Alterations include non-historic-age addition and replacement windows. While the addition is significant, it is not visible from the road and easily identifiable. Given these considerations, Resource 135 has lost integrity of design and materials, but retains integrity of location, workmanship, feeling, setting, and association.	Not individually eligible but remains a historic property as a contributing resource to the NRHP-eligible Delwood II Historic District (Criteria A and C).
136	4331 Airport Boulevard Austin, Travis County 30.30038, -97.71200	DOMESTIC/Single Dwelling	1948	Ranch	One-story, irregular-plan, hip-roof. Ranch residence. Stucco and wood siding, asphalt-shingle roof. Partial-width porch inset under intersecting overhanging eaves at corner. 4-light wood casement and 1/1 wood sash windows. Non-historic-age addition at rear clad in wood siding and recently added carport. A large privacy fence obscures views of much of the house. Resource 136 does not possess historical or architectural significance within the historic contexts necessary for individual listing in the NRHP under Criteria A, B, or C.	Alterations include non-historic-age additions and replacement siding. While the additions are significant, they are not visible from the road and easily identifiable. Given these considerations, Resource 136 has lost integrity of design, but retains integrity of location, materials, workmanship, feeling, setting, and association.	Not individually eligible but remains a historic property as a contributing resource to the NRHP-eligible Delwood II Historic District (Criteria A and C).

295	3009 North Interstate Highway 35 Austin, Travis County 30.28821, -97.72329	DOMESTIC/single dwelling; COMMERCE/TRADE/business	1923	Bungalow	Bungalow form with Classical Revival elements. One-and-one-half-story, hip-on-gable residence with a T-plan and clapboard siding. Pier and beam foundation with low-pitch, hip-on-side-gable roof with eave overhangs, beadboard soffits, cornice returns, and a concrete chimney. Craftsman-style, multi-light-over-one screens mounted over what appears to be original, one-over-one, double-hung sash. Additional decorative details consist of cornices and end boards. Central entrance consists of a central glazed wood door sheltered by a front-gable portico that rests on Doric wood columns. The interior retains its original wood floors and trim, a historic-age front door, and brick fireplace. Resource 295 is significant under NRHP Criterion A in the area of Community Planning and Development and Criterion C in the area of Architecture. It does not possess significance within the historic contexts necessary for NRHP eligibility under Criterion B.	The Haster House retains integrity of location. It also has strong integrity of design, materials, and workmanship, retaining its original form and most of its original materials and displaying only a small, historic-age, rear addition. Modern development has compromised the property's historic setting. However, the residence immediately to the south and residential neighborhood to the east contribute to integrity of feeling and association, as does the retention of many interior features. Its integrity is sufficient to convey its significance under NRHP Criteria A and C as a bungalow built along former East Avenue in 1923.	Eligible (Criterion A: Community Planning and Development; Criterion C: Architecture)

317	East side, 2600-2700 block North Interstate Highway 35 Austin, Travis County 30.284621, -97.725124	FUNERARY/Cemetery	1879; 1916; c.1960	No Style	Mount Calvary Cemetery is approximately ten acres, with grassy lawn, trees, and pathways branching off a main drive. The main drive connects with the I-35 northbound frontage road, with the main entrance marked by brick pillars, overhead signage, and a wrought-iron pedestrian gate. There is 1916 statuary constructed by St. Mary's Church directly east of main entrance. Lots and plots are in a grid, laid east-west, with concrete curb borders. A vacant brick building is located at the southwest corner. Grave markers vary, with some conveying funerary practices of Mexican heritage, or representing Woodmen of the World (WOW) organization members. The setting has an urban character, with the dual-level I-35 highway dominating westward views. Adjacent are roadways and 1980s utilitarian buildings operated by the University of Texas. Resource 317 possesses historical significance under NHRP Criterion A in the areas of Ethnic Heritage and Social History.	Setting has changed over time, most notably from dual-level I-35 highway along the western boundary. Cemetery retains design as altered in 1916, which incorporated the original central drive and paths around the cemetery perimeter. Statuary at eastern end remains, except for a replica of Mount Calvary religious site. Integrity of design, materials, workmanship, and feeling remain as it relates to individual plots, unpaved drives, concrete curbing, and grave markers; however, design elements such as main entrance gate were replaced c.1960. Overall, cemetery retains integrity of location, design, materials, workmanship, feeling, and association. Does not retain integrity of setting.	Eligibility: Eligible (Criterion A: Ethnic Heritage, Social History)

Full-width shed-roof porch with metal roof and wood supports. Entrances with wood double doors on front (west) facade. Wood multi-light fixed and 6/6 wood-sash windows. Visible basement on side (south) and rear (east) elevations. Attached non-historic-age addition with oval-shaped canvas covering on the rear (east) elevation. Historic-age neon sign on side (south) elevation. Significant under Criterion A for Entertainment/Recreation. See HRSR text for detailed evaluation.	Alterations include the addition of a large concert venue at the rear of the building. Due to alterations, Resource 358A has lost integrity of design and feeling. With the construction of a large high-rise condo building across the street, this resource lost integrity of setting but retains integrity of location, materials, workmanship, and association.	Contributing to NRHP-eligible Stubbs BBQ property (Criterion A: Entertainment/Recreation)
358B	801 Red River Street Austin, Travis County 30.26872, -97.73565	COMMERCE/TRADE/Business	c.1964	No Style	One-story, T-plan, flat-roof, commercial building. Concrete block and metal siding. The facade (north) is comprised of a loading dock with sliding metal doors and a warehouse. Historic-age large gable-roof loading dock/warehouse addition with a metal roof and plywood panels on the eastern end of the facade. Small non-historic-age flat-roof, metal and wood addition on the western side of the facade. Concrete block historic-age addition extends to the rear (south), creating the T-plan. Addition has a flat roof and no visible doors or windows. A shed roof awning with corrugated metal roofing extends to the west of this wing, covering an outdoor bar. Significant under Criterion A for Entertainment/Recreation. See HRSR text for detailed evaluation.	Alterations include a non-historic age addition, replacement doors and siding, and the addition of a non-historic age awning and outdoor bar on the western elevation. The development of new high-rise condos in the vicinity will also affect integrity of setting for this building. Due to alterations, Resource 358B has lost integrity of materials, design, workmanship, and feeling but retains integrity of location and association.	Contributing to NRHP-eligible Stubbs BBQ property (Criterion A: Entertainment/Recreation)
358C	801 Red River Street Austin, Travis County 30.26870, -97.73586	COMMERCE/TRADE/Business	c.1900	No Style	One-story, rectangular-plan, side-gable industrial building. Rubble work masonry walls, corrugated metal roof. Two single entry doors on front (east) facade. 4/4 wood-sash windows. Significant under Criterion A for Entertainment/Recreation. See HRSR text for detailed evaluation.	No alterations to this building were observed from the public right of way, but the setting has been significantly altered. For these reasons stated above, Resource 358C has lost integrity of design, feeling, and setting but retains integrity of location, materials, workmanship, and association.	Contributing to NRHP-eligible Stubbs BBQ property (Criterion A: Entertainment/Recreation)
359	700 East 8th Street Austin, Travis County 30.26806, -97.73462	GOVERNMENT/Government Office	1978	No Style	One-story, irregular-plan, flat-roof government building. Concrete slab foundation. 392	501 North Interstate Highway 35 Austin, Travis County 30.26477, -97.73414	INDUSTRY/PROCESSING/EXTRACTION/W warehouse	c.1900	No Style	The Robinson Brothers Warehouse is a one-story industrial warehouse building of rubble limestone construction with visible tooling marks. The rectangular-plan structure rests on a stone foundation and has a flat, membranous roof with a parapet capped with metal coping, a low-pitch, front-gable roof projection with vinyl-clad walls is located in the northeast portion of the building. Fenestration generally consists of replacement wood casement windows with metal bars and heavy glazed wood replacement doors; decorative limestone and wood lintels and sills frame these openings. Landscaping to the west consists of low trees and planting beds that abut the building and are lined by a brick walkway, brick parking pad, and grassy lawn. Resource 392 is significant under NRHP Criterion A in the area of Industry. It does not possess historical or architectural significance within the historic contexts necessary for NRHP eligibility under Criteria B or C.	The lack of the original grain storage elevator and sign, and replacement of windows, doors, and an entry platform along the south facade, somewhat diminish the warehouse's integrity of materials and workmanship. Modern development surrounding the warehouse and removal of the rail siding that once ran beside it has affected its integrity of setting. However, the exterior of the building is largely intact and therefore its integrity of location, design, feeling, and association are retained. Its integrity is sufficient to convey its significance under NRHP Criterion A as a former industrial property.	Eligible (Criterion A: Industry)

It is a two-story commercial building of rubble limestone construction with visible tooling marks. The rectangular-plan structure has a flat, membranous roof. Fenestration generally consists of replacement, four-over-four-unit, wood sash and metal fixed windows with heavy glazed metal replacement doors; decorative limestone sills and segmental arch lintels frame these openings. Flat, corrugated metal awnings are suspended from metal anchors along the front and side (east) elevation. Two historic-age additions replace the first story of the side (west) elevation of the original two-story stone building. Landscaping consists of metal planters placed on the sidewalk along the front (north) facade and grass flanking the sidewalk along the side (west) elevation of the building.	The replacement of windows and doors on the original building, and the infilling of warehouse bays on the additions, was sensitive to the historic fenestration and does not diminish the warehouse's integrity of materials and workmanship. Modern development surrounding the warehouse has affected its integrity of setting. However, the exterior of the building is largely intact and therefore its integrity of location, design, feeling, and association are retained. Its integrity is sufficient to convey its significance under NRHP Criterion A as a former industrial property and under NRHP Criterion C for its architecture.	Eligible (Criterion A: Industry; Criterion C: Architecture)

401	305 Brushy Street Austin, Travis County 30.26306, -97.73449	DOMESTIC/Single Dwelling	1915	No Style	One-story, rectangular-plan, hip-roof residence. Asphalt-shingle roof and metal siding. Partial-width porch with metal shed-roof and wood supports. Single entry door. 1/1 metal-sash windows. Resource 401 does not possess historical or architectural significance within the historic contexts necessary for individual listing in the NRHP under Criteria A, B, or C.	Alterations include replacement door, windows, and siding, and modifications to the porch. Due to alterations and its proximity to IH 35, Resource 401 has lost integrity of materials, workmanship, and setting, but retains integrity of design, location, feeling, and association.	Not eligible.
402	900 East 3rd Street Austin, Travis County 30.26282, -97.73454	DOMESTIC/Single Dwelling	1912	Folk Victorian	One-story, irregular-plan, cross-gable, Folk Victorian residence. Pier and beam foundation. Partial-width porch with flat roof and decorative brackets and wood supports. 2/2, wood-sash windows. Eave returns and decorative trim in gable on the front (southeast) facade. Large gable-roof addition with metal siding and fixed vinyl window (on near north-south) elevation. Significant under Criterion C for Architecture as a good example of late Victorian architecture in East Austin. Does not possess historical or architectural significance within the historic contexts necessary for individual listing in the NRHP under Criteria A or B.	Alterations include a rear addition. Despite alterations, Resource 402 retains all aspects of integrity.	Eligible (Criterion C: Architecture)
403	300 Medina Street Austin, Travis County 30.26265, -97.73310	INDUSTRY/PROCESSING/EXTRACTION/P rocessing Site	1913	No Style	Resource 403 is a complex of industrial buildings on a large lot bounded by East 3rd and East 4th Streets to the north and south, San Marcos Street to the west, and Medina Street to the east. Buildings are arranged generally linearly along East 4th Street to the northwest, with a parking lot to the south. Complex consists of a warehouse/office building (Resource 403A) and two additional buildings (Resource 403B and 403C). A non-historic-age shed is southeast of the buildings. Resource 403 is eligible under Criterion A for Industry for its important role in the industrial development of East Austin. Does not possess historical or architectural significance within the historic contexts necessary for individual listing in the NRHP under Criteria B, or C.	Alterations include replaced windows and doors and non-historic-age canopy. Due to alterations, Resource 403 has diminished integrity of materials and workmanship, but retains integrity of setting, feeling, design, location, and association.	Eligible (Criterion A: Industry)
403A	300 Medina Street Austin, Travis County 30.26271, -97.73284	INDUSTRY/PROCESSING/EXTRACTION/P rocessing Site	1913	No Style	Two-and-one-half-story, rectangular-plan warehouse with one-story office portion on front (southwest) facade. Brick masonry foundation. Side-gable metal roof; warehouse portion has monitor. Metal-clad warehouse with wood 6/6 hung sash windows, metal sliding doors. Brick clad office with arched wood 1/1 hung sash, and rectangular fixed windows. Metal frame glass main entrance doors. Non-historic-age, shed-roof, metal canopy on facade. Non-historic-age shed southeast of Resource 403A. Resource 403 is eligible under Criterion A for Industry for its important role in the industrial development of East Austin. Does not possess historical or architectural significance within the historic contexts necessary for individual listing in the NRHP under Criteria B, or C.	Alterations include replaced windows and doors, and non-historic-age canopy. Due to alterations, Resource 403A has diminished integrity of materials and workmanship, but retains integrity of setting, feeling, design, location, and association.	Contributing to NRHP-eligible Austin Metal & Iron property (Criterion A: Industry)
403B	300 Medina Street Austin, Travis County 30.26293, -97.73312	INDUSTRY/PROCESSING/EXTRACTION/P rocessing Site	1973	No Style	Two-story, rectangular-plan warehouse west of Resource 403A. Concrete slab foundation. Side-gable metal roof. Corrugated metal cladding. Metal multi-light fixed and hung sash windows. Metal sliding doors. Corrugated metal canopies with metal pole supports on front (southwest) facade and rear (northeast) elevations. Resource 403B is eligible under Criterion A for Industry for its important role in the industrial development of East Austin. Does not possess historical or architectural significance within the historic contexts necessary for individual listing in the NRHP under Criteria B, or C.	There are no visible alterations. Resource 403B retains all aspects of integrity.	Contributing to NRHP-eligible Austin Metal & Iron property (Criterion A: Industry)
403C	300 Medina Street Austin, Travis County 30.26303, -97.73329	INDUSTRY/PROCESSING/EXTRACTION/P rocessing Site	1973	No Style	One-story, rectangular-plan building. Concrete slab foundation. Corrugated metal shed roof. Attached to Resource 403B via corrugated metal shed-roof canopy on the side (southeast) elevation. Concrete-block walls, corrugated metal cladding. Metal slab door; metal sliding sash and 6/6 hung sash windows. Resource 403C is eligible under Criterion A for Industry for its important role in the industrial development of East Austin. Does not possess historical or architectural significance within the historic contexts necessary for individual listing in the NRHP under Criteria B, or C.	There are no visible alterations. Resource 403C retains all aspects of integrity.	Contributing to NRHP-eligible Austin Metal & Iron property (Criterion A: Industry)
404A	200 North Interstate Highway 35 Austin, Travis County 30.26272, -97.73673	RECREATION/Park	1929	No Style	Palm Park is located in the southeast corner of downtown Austin along lower Waller Creek. It contains five contributing resources—Palm Park site (Resource 404A), Shelter (404B), Swimming Pool (404C), Concrete Steps (404D) and Tetherball Court (404E)—and two noncontributing resources: Waller Creek Greenbelt Trail (404F) and Playground (404G). As a component resource of Palm Park constructed during the park's period of significance, Resource 404A is significant under NRHP Criterion A in the areas of Entertainment/Recreation and Ethnic Heritage. It does not possess historical or architectural significance within the historic contexts necessary for NRHP eligibility under Criteria B or C.	The only significant known alteration to the park landscape has been the removal of tennis courts c.2010 that were formerly situated north of the swimming pool. Modern development in downtown Austin surrounding the park has somewhat diminished its integrity of setting. However, integrity of location, design, materials, workmanship, feeling, and association are retained. Its integrity is sufficient as a contributing resource to the overall NRHP-eligible Palm Park.	Contributing to the NRHP-eligible Palm Park (Criterion A: Entertainment/Recreation and Ethnic Heritage); not individually eligible.
404B	200 North Interstate Highway 35 Austin, Travis County 30.26267, -97.73657	RECREATION/Park Shelter	1933	Rustic	The shelter is located at the eastern side of the park. The one-story, Rustic-style building has a rectangular plan and dogtrot design with small, square, enclosed massings to the north and south connected by an open breezeway. The shelter is constructed of uncut fieldstone and features a castellated parapet around the roofline. It has arched doorways with replacement doors; the door openings feature arched fieldstone surrounds with keystones. Pairs of small arches above the doorways originally had louvered screens and are now filled in with stone. Additional window openings to the north and south, accented with fieldstone lintels and sills, now hold wooden replacement vents. Along the west elevation, the walls of the towers extend in decorative castside wingwalls that terminate in square stone pillars. As a component resource of Palm Park constructed during the park's period of significance, Resource 404B is significant under NRHP Criterion A in the areas of Entertainment/Recreation and Ethnic Heritage. It does not possess historical or architectural significance within the historic contexts necessary for NRHP eligibility under Criteria B or C.	Alterations include door and window replacements, an accessible ramp with modern metal railing on the north restroom tower, and metal bars with lighting mounted along the open breezeway framing. The breezeway may have originally been covered. Due to alterations, integrity of location, materials, setting, feeling, and association are retained. Its integrity is sufficient as a contributing resource to the overall Palm Park.	Contributing to the NRHP-eligible Palm Park (Criterion A: Entertainment/Recreation and Ethnic Heritage); not individually eligible.
404C	200 North Interstate Highway 35 Austin, Travis County 30.26264, -97.73708	RECREATION/Swimming Pool	1933	No Style	The Palm Park swimming pool is located at the center of the park, west of the shelter building and southeast of Waller Creek. It measures approximately 75 feet by 37 feet. Currently closed and surrounded with chain-link fencing, the pool is bordered by concrete that is struck to look like curved stone. It is covered with a tarp; however, three sets of metal steps with handrails are visible rising around its perimeter. Two metal benches are evenly spaced north of the pool and one is located to the west. A concrete base that may have once held a diving board is also located on the west end of the pool. As a component resource of Palm Park constructed during the park's period of significance, Resource 404C is significant under NRHP Criterion A in the areas of Entertainment/Recreation and Ethnic Heritage. It does not possess historical or architectural significance within the historic contexts necessary for NRHP eligibility under Criteria B or C.	The swimming pool does not display any obvious alterations. Due to its closure since 2010, integrity of feeling and association are diminished. However, integrity of location, design, materials, workmanship, and setting are retained. Its integrity is sufficient as a contributing resource to the overall Palm Park.	Contributing to the NRHP-eligible Palm Park (Criterion A: Entertainment/Recreation and Ethnic Heritage); not individually eligible.
404D	200 North Interstate Highway 35 Austin, Travis County 30.26263, -97.73699	RECREATION/Steps	c.1933	No Style	A small set of concrete steps provides access to the I-35 southbound Frontage Road sidewalk, which generally follows the same alignment as former East Avenue and therefore may be original to the park. As a component resource of Palm Park constructed during the park's period of significance, Resource 404D is significant under NRHP Criterion A in the areas of Entertainment/Recreation and Ethnic Heritage. It does not possess historical or architectural significance within the historic contexts necessary for NRHP eligibility under Criteria B or C.	There are no obvious alterations to the steps and their integrity is sufficient as a contributing resource to the overall Palm Park.	Contributing to the NRHP-eligible Palm Park (Criterion A: Entertainment/Recreation and Ethnic Heritage); not individually eligible.
404E	200 North Interstate Highway 35 Austin, Travis County 30.26257, -97.73666	RECREATION/Tetherball Court	c.1970	No Style	The tetherball court is a small circular concrete pad with metal pole. There is currently no tetherball attached to the pole. It is located in the eastern portion of Palm Park, just south of the shelter. As a component resource of Palm Park constructed during the park's period of significance, Resource 404E is significant under NRHP Criterion A in the areas of Entertainment/Recreation and Ethnic Heritage. It does not possess historical or architectural significance within the historic contexts necessary for NRHP eligibility under Criteria B or C.	The tetherball court does not display obvious alterations and its integrity is sufficient as a contributing resource to the overall Palm Park.	Contributing to the NRHP-eligible Palm Park (Criterion A: Entertainment/Recreation and Ethnic Heritage); not individually eligible.
404F	200 North Interstate Highway 35 Austin, Travis County 30.26292, -97.73709	RECREATION/Multi-use Trail	1981	No Style	The Waller Creek Greenbelt Trail, this portion of which was completed by 1981, is part of a larger trail that extends north and southwest on either side of the park. Although the trail generally follows Waller Creek, the Palm Park portion deviates from the creek bank to meander through the park landscape. The trail is surfaced with concrete. Resource 404F was constructed after Palm Park's period of significance and is therefore noncontributing to the park.	There are no visible alterations. Resource 404F retains all aspects of integrity.	Noncontributing to the NRHP-eligible Palm Park (Criterion A: Entertainment/Recreation and Ethnic Heritage); not individually eligible.
404G	200 North Interstate Highway 35 Austin, Travis County 30.26246, -97.736682	RECREATION/Playground	2003	No Style	Modern playground equipment is located in the southeast corner of the park. It rests in a mulch bed bordered by concrete curbs. Resource 404G was constructed after Palm Park's period of significance and is therefore noncontributing to the park.	There are no visible alterations. Resource 404G retains all aspects of integrity.	Noncontributing to the NRHP-eligible Palm Park (Criterion A: Entertainment/Recreation and Ethnic Heritage); not individually eligible.
405A	200 Brushy Street Austin, Travis County 30.2624, -97.73514	RELIGION/Church	1964	Modernist	The sanctuary has a rectangular plan and rests on a concrete foundation with cream brick cladding; it faces a landscaped courtyard. The building is dominated by a dramatic front-gable roof with a concave pitch. The gable ends are covered in wood siding and feature modern stained glass. The side (east) elevation features a wide eave overhang with wood soffits and large square wood brackets. The wing to the north of the sanctuary houses classrooms, offices, and a kitchen. It is a one-story, rectangular, cream brick structure resting on a concrete foundation with a flat roof. The Emmanuel UMC complex consists of buildings dating to three major stages of construction: the fellowship hall built in 1952 as the original sanctuary and classroom building (Resource 405B); the current sanctuary and additional classroom and office wing, completed in 1964 (405A); and an addition along the west side of the sanctuary dating to 1978 (405C). As a component resource of Emmanuel UMC constructed during the period of significance, Resource 405A is significant under NRHP Criterion A in the area of Ethnic Heritage and Criterion C in the area of Architecture. It does not possess historical significance for NRHP eligibility under Criterion B.	The only significant known alteration to the sanctuary has been the obscuring of its original western elevation with the 1978 addition, which took place within the period of significance. Non-historic-age development has somewhat diminished its integrity of setting. However, integrity of location, design, materials, workmanship, feeling, and association are retained. Its integrity is sufficient as a contributing resource to the NRHP-eligible Emmanuel UMC.	Eligible (Criterion A: Ethnic Heritage; Criterion C: Architecture).

405B	201 Brushy Street Austin, Travis County 30.2621, -97.73533	RELIGION/Church	1952	Modernist	The 1952 sanctuary building is a one-story building with a rectangular plan and rests on a concrete foundation with cream brick cladding. The low-pitch, front-gable roof displays metal coping around the shallow eaves. Metal lettering spells "EMMANUEL" in the gable end at the rear (west) elevation. Fenestration consists of replacement, metal, multi-pane, double-hung windows with arched transoms along the side (north and south) elevations. The upper portions of the original rectangular window openings are infilled with vertical wood panels. The windows display brick header sills. Along the south side elevation a secondary entrance has been infilled with brick. The classroom "elf" has a low-pitch, side-gable roof and extends north of the 1952 sanctuary along the western portion of the building. It features replacement vinyl casement and sliding windows along the rear (west) and front (east) elevations.	The fellowship hall has undergone replacement of windows, doors, and some cladding, which has somewhat diminished its integrity of materials and workmanship. Modern development has somewhat affected its integrity of setting. However, integrity of location, design, feeling, and association are retained. Its integrity is sufficient as a contributing resource to the overall NRHP-eligible Emmanuel UMC.	Eligible (Criterion A: Ethnic Heritage; Criterion C: Architecture).
405C	202 Brushy Street Austin, Travis County 30.26244, -97.73526	RELIGION/Church	1978	Modernist	A 1978 addition spans the west side of the complex. It is rectangular, rests on a concrete foundation, is clad in cream brick, and has a flat roof with metal coping. Pairs of fixed, multi-pane, metal windows with vertical wood paneling above and below and vertical concrete panels separating each pair are evenly spaced along the west elevation. This wing of the building is accessed via the courtyard. The Emmanuel UMC complex consists of buildings dating to three major stages of construction: the fellowship hall built in 1952 as the original sanctuary and classroom building (Resource 405B); the current sanctuary and additional classroom and office wing, completed in 1964 (405A); and an addition along the west side of the sanctuary dating to 1978 (405C). As a component resource of Emmanuel UMC constructed during the period of significance, Resource 405A is significant under NRHP Criterion A in the area of Ethnic Heritage and Criterion C in the area of Architecture. It does not possess historical significance for NRHP eligibility under Criterion B.	This addition has not undergone any known alterations. Therefore, it retains sufficient integrity as a contributing resource to the overall NRHP-eligible Emmanuel UMC.	Eligible (Criterion A: Ethnic Heritage; Criterion C: Architecture).
406	903 East 3rd Street Austin, Travis County 30.26243, -97.73457	DOMESTIC/Single Dwelling	1900	No Style	One-story, irregular-plan, cross-hip residence. Metal roof and horizontal wood siding. Partial-width porch with shed roof and decorative wood support. Single entry door. Fixed vinyl windows. Views of Resource 406 are obscured by privacy fence. Non-historic-age, prefabricated, one-story, shed-roof shed located southwest of Resource 406. Contributing to the recommended NRHP-eligible East 2nd and 3rd Street Historic District. Resource 406 does not possess historical or architectural significance within the historic contexts necessary for individual listing in the NRHP under Criteria A, B, or C.	Alterations include replacement entry door and windows. Due to its close proximity to IH 35, Resource 406 has lost integrity of setting, but retains integrity of materials, workmanship, design, location, feeling and association.	Not individually eligible but remains a historic property as a contributing resource to the recommended NRHP-eligible East 2nd and 3rd Street Historic District (Criteria A and C).

462	Art Dilly Drive-Cummings Street Austin, Travis County 30.25364, -97.73638	RECREATION AND CULTURE/Outdoor Recreation	c.1973	No Style	The overall Town Lake Park System includes more than 10 miles of interconnected City of Austin-owned parks surrounding Lady Bird Lake in central Austin, roughly between the Mopac Expressway in the west and the Longhorn Dam in the east. The Town Lake Hike and Bike Trail (later renamed the Ann and Roy Butler Hike and Bike Trail) unifies the park system, passing through more than a dozen lakefront landscapes (called "beaches" and "shores") that surround Lady Bird Lake. The section of the Town Lake Park System between Waller Creek and Fiesta Gardens includes a contributing segment of the Butler Trail (462A) and contributing portions of parks historically known as Waller Beach (462B) and Festival Beach (462C). Within these parks are two contributing Boat Ramps (462E and 462F), and four noncontributing buildings: Emma S. Barrantes Mexican American Cultural Center (462G), Storage Butler (462H), Festival Beach Restroom (462I), and the Nash Hernandez Building (462J). Picnic tables, trash cans, bike racks, signage, lighting, and utilities are common park features and, while they contribute to a sense of feeling and association, the fixtures are modern in character and are collectively considered noncontributing. Resource 462 is significant under NRHP Criterion A in the areas of Entertainment/ Recreation, Community Planning and Development, Social History, and Criterion C: Landscape Architecture. It does not possess historical or architectural significance within the historic contexts necessary for NRHP eligibility under Criteria B.	The most significant alteration is the removal of bleachers associated with the Austin Aqua Festival at Festival Beach. Downtown development after 1980 has somewhat diminished the integrity of setting at Waller Beach, but setting is retained along the remainder of the parkland between I-35 and Fiesta Gardens. Overall, Resource 462 retains integrity of location, design, materials, workmanship, feeling, and association.	Eligible (Criterion A: Entertainment/ Recreation, Community Planning and Development, and Social History; Criterion C: Landscape Architecture)
462A	Ann and Roy Butler Hike and Bike Trail (Waller Creek to Fiesta Gardens) Austin, Travis County 30.251658, -97.736124	RECREATION AND CULTURE/Hike and Bike Trail	1973-1975	No Style	Resource 462A is a 1-mile stretch of shared-use trail along the north shore of Lady Bird Lake in downtown Austin. The trail segment has a standard width of 12 feet and is generally paved with crushed pink granite. Occasional segments of concrete-paved trail occur at high erosion areas and generally measure between 10 and 30 yards in length. In most areas, the trail is screened on the lake side with a variety of trees, including cypress, pecan, live oak, and sycamore. Occasional breaks in the tree line allow for lake access, fishing points, and boat slips. Public art installations, trash and recycling containers, interpretive panels, and trail signs are situated along the trail. As a component resource of the Town Lake Park System from Waller Creek to Fiesta Gardens developed during the park's period of significance, Resource 462A is significant under NRHP Criterion A in the areas of Entertainment/Recreation, Community Planning and Development, and Social History and under Criterion C for Landscape Architecture. It does not possess historical or architectural significance within the historic contexts necessary for NRHP eligibility under Criteria B.	Based on aerial imagery, the trail maintains its original alignment and width from the period of significance. Although several short concrete sections have been added to accommodate drainage, its overall gravel surfacing appears to have been replaced in-kind. The Butler Trail segment between Waller Creek and Fiesta Gardens retains all aspects of integrity.	Contributing to the NRHP-eligible Town Lake Park System section between Waller Creek and Fiesta Gardens (Criterion A: Entertainment/Recreation, Community Planning and Development, and Social History; Criterion C: Landscape Architecture).
462B	30 East Avenue Austin, Travis County 30.25394, -97.73894	RECREATION AND CULTURE/Park	1974-1975	No Style	Resource 462B is a section of the Waller Beach at Town Lake Metro Park (Waller Beach). The park is a linear property that runs along the north shore of Lady Bird Lake between Congress Avenue to the west and I-35 to the east. For the purposes of this intensive survey, only the section of Waller Beach between Waller Creek and I-35 was included in the evaluation. The park lines the lakefront along the eastern side of Austin's downtown area, and the Butler Trail (Resource 462A) runs through the park, generally hugging the lake shore. Other landscape features include public art installations; stone water fountains and retaining walls; metal pedestrian bridges; gravel and concrete boat ramps; and non-historic age metal benches, plastic trash receptacles, concrete picnic tables, interpretive panels, trail signage, comfort stations, and native plant gardens. As a component resource of the Town Lake Park System section from Waller Creek to Fiesta Gardens developed during the park's period of significance, Resource 462B is significant under NRHP Criterion A in the areas of Entertainment/ Recreation, Community Planning and Development, and Social History and under Criterion C for Landscape Architecture. It does not possess historical or architectural significance within the historic contexts necessary for NRHP eligibility under Criterion B.	Downtown development after 1980 has somewhat diminished the integrity of setting at Waller Beach. However, integrity of location, design, materials, workmanship, feeling, and association are retained. Its integrity is sufficient as a contributing resource to the overall NRHP-eligible Town Lake Park System section between Waller Creek and Fiesta Gardens.	Contributing to the NRHP-eligible Town Lake Park System section between Waller Creek and Fiesta Gardens (Criterion A: Entertainment/Recreation, Community Planning and Development, and Social History; Criterion C: Landscape Architecture).
462C	2101 Jesse E. Segovia Street Austin, Travis County 30.250318, -97.731854	RECREATION AND CULTURE/Park	1973-1975	No Style	Resource 462C is a section of the Edward Rendon Sr. Metro Park at Festival Beach (Festival Beach) located along the north shore of Lady Bird Lake. The park is bounded by I-35 to the west and Fiesta Gardens to the east. The terrain generally slopes toward the lake and is defined by a pastoral landscape shaded with a variety of mature trees, including cypress, sycamore, live oak, and pecan. A denser screen of mature trees and smaller understory vegetation lines the lakefront and obscures views of the lake in many places. This screen is broken at irregularly spaced intervals to create lake access and fishing points. The Butler Hike and Bike Trail (Resource 462A) follows the lake shore through the park. Non-historic-age amenities are placed throughout, including benches, bike racks, picnic tables, water fountains, trash receptacles, public art installations, and signage. At the park's western edge, the land underneath the I-35 bridge is used for parking. As a component resource of the Town Lake Park System section from Waller Creek to Fiesta Gardens developed during the park's period of significance, Resource 462C is significant under NRHP Criterion A in the areas of Entertainment/ Recreation, Community Planning and Development, and Social History and under Criterion C for Landscape Architecture. It does not possess historical or architectural significance within the historic contexts necessary for NRHP eligibility under Criterion B.	The most significant alteration is the removal of bleachers associated with the Austin Aqua Festival at Festival Beach. Overall vegetation and tree cover has increased substantially at Festival Beach, which may alter the feeling since 1980, but they are the final realization of early park plans that stowed a semi-forested shoreline. Festival Beach retains all aspects of integrity.	Contributing to the NRHP-eligible Town Lake Park System section between Waller Creek and Fiesta Gardens (Criterion A: Entertainment/Recreation, Community Planning and Development, and Social History; Criterion C: Landscape Architecture).
462D	Along Butler Hike and Bike Trail, west of I-35 bridge over Lady Bird Lake Austin, Travis County 30.252613, -97.737418	RECREATION AND CULTURE/Boat Ramp	c.1970	No Style	Resource 462D is a shallow-grade, concrete boat ramp located at Waller Beach approximately 150 yards west of the I-35 bridge over Lady Bird Lake. The ramp is paved with asphalt from the street (East Avenue) to the Butler Hike and Bike Trail. Where the ramp crosses the trail and enters the lake, it is paved with concrete. Signage for boating safety is posted next to the ramp. As a component resource of the Town Lake Park System section from Waller Creek to Fiesta Gardens developed during the park's period of significance, Resource 462D is significant under NRHP Criterion A in the areas of Entertainment/ Recreation, Community Planning and Development, and Social History and under Criterion C for Landscape Architecture. It does not possess historical or architectural significance within the historic contexts necessary for NRHP eligibility under Criterion B.	There are no known alterations. Resource 462D retains all aspects of integrity.	Contributing to the NRHP-eligible Town Lake Park System section between Waller Creek and Fiesta Gardens (Criterion A: Entertainment/Recreation, Community Planning and Development, and Social History; Criterion C: Landscape Architecture).
462E	Under I-35 bridge over Lady Bird Lake Austin, Travis County 30.251596, -97.736252	RECREATION AND CULTURE/Boat Ramp	c.1960	No Style	Resource 462E is a shallow-grade, concrete boat ramp located on the eastern edge of Waller Beach underneath the I-35 bridge over Lady Bird Lake. Concrete paving approaches the ramp from East Avenue. Reflective signs installed c.2012 restrict access to the lake, indicating that the ramp is no longer in use or restricted to small watercrafts. The area under the bridge is primarily used for visitor parking. As a component resource of the Town Lake Park System section from Waller Creek to Fiesta Gardens developed during the park's period of significance, Resource 462E is significant under NRHP Criterion A in the areas of Entertainment/ Recreation, Community Planning and Development, and Social History and under Criterion C for Landscape Architecture. It does not possess historical or architectural significance within the historic contexts necessary for NRHP eligibility under Criterion B.	There are no known alterations. Resource 462E retains all aspects of integrity.	Contributing to the NRHP-eligible Town Lake Park System section between Waller Creek and Fiesta Gardens (Criterion A: Entertainment/Recreation, Community Planning and Development, and Social History; Criterion C: Landscape Architecture).
462F	1317 1/2 Nash Hernandez Street Austin, Travis County 30.251705, -97.734448	RECREATION AND CULTURE/Park Restroom (now Storage Building)	c.1985	No Style	Resource 462F is a small, one-story, rectangular-plan, side-gable, Spanish Colonial Revival former restroom. The building is constructed of concrete walls and has a clay tile roof. Two arched doorways on the south facade are bordered with clay tile. One circular vent in gable on east elevation. Building has been converted for use as a maintenance shed. Resource 462F was constructed after the period of significance for the Town Lake Park System section from Waller Creek to Fiesta Gardens and is therefore noncontributing to the park.	There are no known alterations. Resource 462F retains all aspects of integrity.	Noncontributing to the NRHP-eligible Town Lake Park System section between Waller Creek and Fiesta Gardens (Criterion A: Entertainment/ Recreation, Community Planning and Development, and Social History; Criterion C: Landscape Architecture); not individually eligible.
462G	1317 1/2 Nash Hernandez Street Austin, Travis County 30.251553, -97.734539	RECREATION AND CULTURE/Park Restroom	2020	No Style	Resource 462G is small irregular-plan restroom building. The building is comprised of two offset rectangular concrete boxes that house restroom facilities. The roof is formed of two asymmetrical undulating awnings with tile roofing. The sinks and water fountain are set on the front (west) side of the building. Resource 462G was constructed after the period of significance for the Town Lake Park System section from Waller Creek to Fiesta Gardens and is therefore noncontributing to the park.	There are no known alterations. Resource 462G retains all aspects of integrity.	Noncontributing to the NRHP-eligible Town Lake Park System section between Waller Creek and Fiesta Gardens (Criterion A: Entertainment/ Recreation, Community Planning and Development, and Social History; Criterion C: Landscape Architecture); not individually eligible.
462H	1621 Nash Hernandez Sr. Road Austin, Travis County 30.250394, -97.730407	GOVERNMENT/Administration Building	1966	No Style	Resource 462H is the Nash Hernandez Building. It is a one-story, irregular plan, Dutch-gable, government administration building. The building is set on a concrete foundation with brick veneer walls and metal roofing. Most windows are fixed frame metal units with some 2/2 horizontally divided metal sashes. Building is constructed on a hill, with the terrain sloping from front to rear. A banked basement opens onto a patio at rear (south). Concrete and metal walkways approach entrances at front (north) and western elevations, spanning the gaps made by depressed terraces between the walkways and building. Resource 462H was constructed before the period of significance for the Town Lake Park System section from Waller Creek to Fiesta Gardens and is unrelated to its significance therefore noncontributing to the park.	There are no known alterations. Resource 462H retains all aspects of integrity.	Noncontributing to the NRHP-eligible Town Lake Park System section between Waller Creek and Fiesta Gardens (Criterion A: Entertainment/ Recreation, Community Planning and Development, and Social History; Criterion C: Landscape Architecture); not individually eligible.
